DDC's Washinger Recognized for Warfighter Support

By Jessica Walter, DDC Command Affairs

Defense Distribution Center (DDC) Supply Management Specialist Larry Washinger was presented the DLA Superior Civilian Service Award in a March ceremony officiated by DDC Commander BG Mike Lally, USA, in recognition of Washinger's accomplishments while deployed as part of DLA Contingency Support Team (DCST) - Kuwait in 2004.

"We're grateful for what you do," BG Lally told Washinger as he congratulated him on receiving the award and asked him about his experience in Kuwait.

"My tour was educational . . . and sometimes emotional," Washinger recounted.

Washinger also praised his DLA and DDC co-workers back in the states, commending them for their support. "The call center was phenomenal! It was great to be able to reach back and get the information I needed."

While deployed to DCST - Kuwait, Washinger served as a Senior Material Distribution Specialist. His efforts supported more than 200,000 multi-national Coalition Armed Forces. Using the knowledge he has gained from 27 years of federal service and his experience while serving in the Army, Washinger was able to enhance the readiness of Warfighters supporting Operation Iraqi Freedom by making the flow of commodities into theater more efficient.
